

FD TOUR TO ALICANTE

Known as Lucentum by the Romans, Alicante is the capital of the gorgeous, sun-blessed coastline known as the Costa Blanca. The city is crowned by the Castle of Santa Barbara, on top of Benacantil hill and is one of the largest fortresses in Europe.

After the visit, the tour takes you to the Postiguet beach and the initial point of the walking tour through the old town of Alicante with quarters offering Moorish reminiscences. We continue on foot to the base of the castle and we find the Cathedral of San Nicolás with its austere facade and renaissance style interior. In this tour you will also see the 18th century baroque town hall. Finally the tour will take you to the handsome pedestrian walk known as the Esplanada de España, a leafy and colourful promenade graced by tall palm trees. This spot is ideal to savour the cool and delicious Valencian vegetarian drink orxata. This is a sweet milky drink made from a maceration of crushed tiger nuts known locally as chufas.
